PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Deb Graceffa brings to the mediation arena a combined 30+ years of experience as a real estate litigator, mediator and transactional practitioner, including extensive hands-on experience as a real estate broker, developer, HOA board member and property manager. In her practice as an attorney and real estate broker, Deb has been involved on multiple levels, and from all sides of transactions, with the purchase, sale, development, construction, leasing and management of residential and commercial real properties. Because she has had “boots on the ground” in a wide range of real estate ventures, she engenders trust from parties attempting to resolve real estate disputes as someone who has hands-on experience in real estate.

Deb’s mediation practice includes resolution of every manner of real estate dispute including:

Alameda County Superior Court Alternative Dispute Panel Mediator

Mediator with the Congress of Neutrals for the Contra Costa County Superior Court

STATEMENT: I take a practical and level-headed approach to helping parties resolve their real estate disputes, no matter what stage they are in. My years of hands-on experience in a multitude of real estate ventures helps me to better understand the nuances and complexities of real estate disputes and how to help the parties resolve them. I have worked on all sides of disputes, and thus, have a balanced, 360-degree view of problems, how they arose and how to resolve them. I am a direct problem solver and a facilitator. However, I can be evaluative when the situation calls for it. I understand that all disputes have an emotional component to them. I acknowledge and work with the emotional component, without getting mired in it to the point of getting stuck.

FEES: $525 per hour with a four-hour minimum.

SERVICE AREAS: Anywhere in State of California via Zoom or related on-line platforms. In person mediations in Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, Solano, San Mateo and San Francisco counties.
