

MEDIATOR PROFILE – LOLA ELLWEIN, ESQ.

EDUCATION

Undergraduate School: San Francisco State University
Law School: University of California Hastings College of the Law

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Lola Ellwein brings decades of experience to mediation. Representing both plaintiffs and defendants, she has successfully litigated, mediated, and settled hundreds of matters. Since 1986, Lola Ellwein has represented people and companies, both plaintiffs and defendants, in all kinds of real estate and business disputes and transactions. Her clients have included buyers; sellers; brokers; agents; title companies; escrow agents; home inspectors; contractors; and investors. Ms. Ellwein has made continuing education presentations to real estate licensees and attorneys. In 1993, she was appointed to the Panel of Pro-Tem Judges in Alameda County. She has served as Chair of the Real Property Section of the Alameda County Bar Association. Ms. Ellwein is currently Chair of the ADR Section of the Napa Bar Association, and on the ADR Subcommittee of the California State Bar Association.

AFFILIATIONS

California State Bar #121434; Napa County Bar Association; Napa County Women Lawyers Association

STATEMENT

Ms. Ellwein is a firm believer in mediation because it gives the actual parties an opportunity to speak and be heard, and regularly results in tremendous cost and fee savings to all participants. When parties actively participate in mediation, it relieves much of the anxiety they would otherwise experience in litigation or arbitration. Ms. Ellwein knows that parties who resolve their disputes through mediation experience far greater satisfaction with the results than litigation could ever bring.

FEES

$375 per hour

SERVICE AREAS

Alameda County; Amador County; Calaveras County; Contra Costa County; Lake County; Marin County; Napa County; Nevada County; Placer County; Sacramento County; San Joaquin County; Solano County; Sonoma County; and Sutter County. $100 travel charge for mediations more than 75 miles from Napa.

OFFICE LOCATION

Beautiful downtown Napa, California.