

MEDIATOR PROFILE – ROGER A. MOSS, ESQ.

EDUCATION

UC Berkeley, A.B. History Phi Beta Kappa
UC Hastings College of the Law, J.D.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Roger Moss is a consummate deal maker who has been resolving real estate disputes nationally since 1986.

Known for his empathy and lateral thinking, Roger delivers flexible, affordable online services that do not depend upon assembling people for a pressurized experience. He believes that clients are better served by and more satisfied with mediation results that emerge slowly through multiple conversations.

An innovator and recognized leader in the field online dispute resolution, Roger designed and manages Conflict Intervention Service, a large-scale mediation program for the Bar Association of San Francisco. A past chairman of the board of the Association for Dispute Resolution of Northern California, Roger also serves as Vice Chair of the ADR Section executive committee for the Washington State Bar.

PRACTICE AREAS

Landlord & Tenant
Transactional Disputes
Partitions & Partnership Dissolution
Brokerage Disputes

LICENSES

California State Bar #123741
California Broker DRE #1224398
Washington State Bar #51679

AFFILIATIONS

International Council for Online Dispute Resolution
Association for Conflict Resolution
The Bar Association of San Francisco

FEES

$300 per hour, with a four-hour minimum

SERVICE AREAS

Offices in San Francisco and Seattle
Serving clients globally through Online Dispute Resolution