PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Nisa Sheikh brings over 14 years of mediation experience and has mediated over hundreds of cases. Currently Nisa is on the Civil Mediation Panel at the San Diego Superior Court. She has mediated cases and is actively mediating cases for the Riverside Superior Court and the San Bernadino Superior Court. She has mediated small claims matters, family law matters, contract law issues, insurance policy disputes, and everything pertaining to real estate issues including her expertise in homeowners' association cases. Nisa has also participated in community action mediations where she has volunteered her time to help mediate for the North County Lifeline Association in San Diego. She mediated contract law issues, property and real estate issues, and immigration issues. Nisa was a volunteer for the San Diego Volunteer Lawyers where she handled and mediated immigration and community property issues. Currently, Nisa is a volunteer mediator for the Inland Fair Housing Association in San Bernadino as well and helps to mediate landlord and tenant disputes. Nisa is also mediating for the National Conflict Resolution Center in San Diego, CA and takes on real estate dispute matters. Nisa mediates one case a week for the San Diego Superior Court. Nisa is also mediating for the Restorative Justice Mediation Program and mediates court criminal cases. Nisa is very familiar with the California Residential Purchase Agreement and has been a broker associate and sales associate for over 13 years. Nisa can help settle matters for the courts and for the various organizations that she has mediated for. Nisa is dedicated to helping reduce the amount of disputes that overwhelm the courts and any organization. Nisa has attended several Advance Mediation Trainings held by the Riverside Superior Court and currently attends monthly court round table mediation meetings. Nisa is a member of the American Association of Arbitrators, and the Southern California Mediation Association. Nisa was recently selected to join the C.A.R. Interboard Arbitration Program as a volunteer arbitrator for the board. Nisa has mediated over 300 cases mostly relating to real estate issues.
