PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Dr. Saul Larner, an unusually gifted, board certified mediator, is distinguished for his coined term, “Settlement is an Art”. In this area of emotions where mediation and settlement fuse together, he has created his passion for interweaving patterns and collaborative negotiations. To bring his slogan to a reality, his game plan paints a picture with a “palette of colors” that are recognized symbols of excellence. With this, he sets forth an outcome which is most likely to be accepted by both parties. He is a special link between the needs of all participants and the effective strategies to resolve the issues. His opinions are as impartial as they are complete.

Dr. Larner has been a successful real estate broker since 1981 and has become a real estate mediator in 1999. He was a mediator for the $40 million Robert Taylor ranch in Brentwood, California which was recognized as a landmark mediation. He can help you positively resolve your conflicts and issues. Further, a major goal is that the experience and procedures will lead to mending the disruption of family members and business colleagues.
