

MEDIATOR PROFILE – FREDRIC W. TRESTER

EDUCATION

BA University of Arizona
JD (cum laude) Santa Clara University School of Law
AAA Mediation Training

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Fredric Trester has been on the Los Angeles Superior Court (LASC) mediation panel for over 15 years and also acted as a Neutral Evaluator under the LASC Neutral Evaluation Program. He has been involved in over 400 mediations and regularly assists parties in resolving their real estate disputes. As a former Adjunct Professor at Southwestern University School of Law, Mr. Trester taught Real Estate Transactions and methods of resolving disputes arising from purchase and sale transactions. Mr. Trester applies his 30 years of experience as a licensed broker and attorney specializing in representing clients in real estate litigation, to help parties engaged in alternative dispute resolution better understand the issues and realities of litigating versus taking a pragmatic business approach to disputes. Mr. Trester is a committed mediator who does not give up until the case is resolved or the parties clearly understand what steps are required to mend their differences.
