History of Altadena California

Altadena – location and history

Why Altadena?

- Redlining
- Construction of Interstate 210/Foothill Freeway
- Long gone historical credibility – founded by Owen Brown

Altadena fire location

What is the (immediate) impact?

- Impacts of redlining and legacy of housing discrimination:
 - Historical redlining practices resulted in the concentration of Black families into the areas of Altadena most affected by the fire, exacerbating vulnerabilities.
- 61% of Black households in Altadena were located within the fire perimeter, compared with 50% of non-Black households.
- Nearly half (48%) of Black households were destroyed or sustained major damage, compared with 37% experienced by non-Black households.

Home ownership is the primary source of intergenerational wealth for Black and White Americans, but represents a much larger percentage for Black Americans.

►► What is Mental Health?

- Mental health includes our emotional, psychological, and social well-being
- It affects how we think, feel, and act
- It also helps determine how we handle stress, relate to others, and make choices

►► The Role of Mental Health

- Coordinate Services with the Office of Emergency Management (OEM)
- Coordinate with other agencies
- Respond to requests in real time
- Provide disaster mental health services –
 - ◀ Provide assistance in multiple entry points including Pasadena/Altadena point of entry, as well as the Westwood Evacuation center and Malibu.

►► Why is Mental Health Important?

When people experience a disaster, they may experience a variety of reactions, many of which are natural responses to difficult situations:

- ◀ Signs of distress
- ◀ Physical and emotional symptoms
- ◀ Individuals who suffer from mental health may experience exacerbation of existing condition
- ◀ Providing mental health services will minimize negative outcomes

►► What you may experience: Reactions to trauma

- Cognitive- Confusion, disorientation, worry, intrusive thoughts and images, self blame.
- Emotional- Shock, sorrow, grief, sadness, fear, anger, numbness, irritability, guilt, and shame.
- Social – Extreme withdrawal, interpersonal conflict.
- Physiological – Fatigue, headache, muscle tension, stomachache, increased heart rate, exaggerated startle response, and difficulty sleeping.

▶▶ The Role of Mental Health Providers

- Assist survivors emotionally
- Provide support and guidance
- Assist survivors to cope with the event

►► Disaster Mental Health Services

Department of Mental Health has trained clinicians and paraprofessionals/peers who are able to provide:

- Outreach and Engagement
- Supportive Counseling (listening to common reactions)
- Crisis Stabilization
- Psychological First Aid (active listening, comforting, connecting with the victims)

▶▶ Mental Health Services (Cont.)

- Linkage to social and mental health services
- Case management

“Rebuilding Altadena and Restoring Our Legacy”

OAKLAND — California Attorney General Rob Bonta today issued a consumer alert following Governor Gavin Newsom's Executive Order N-23-25, which extends certain price gouging protections in response to the Los Angeles fires. In today's alert, Attorney General Bonta reminds all Californians that price gouging during a state of emergency is illegal under Penal Code Section 396. Californians who believe they have been the victim of price gouging should report it to their local authorities, or to the Attorney General at oag.ca.gov/report or by calling (800) 952-5225. To view a list of all price gouging restrictions currently in effect as a result of proclamations by the Governor, please see here. (Note: The State price gouging chart has Not yet been updated as of this writing.)

"Governor Newsom's executive order extends protections for Californians who are still reeling from the damage caused by the Los Angeles fires. State and local law enforcement across California will continue to use the full force of the law to go after people who illegally price gouge," said Attorney General Bonta. "To build strong cases, I urge existing and prospective tenant victims to report price gouging to local authorities, or to my office at oag.ca.gov/report or by reaching out to our hotline at (800) 952-5225."

Among other actions, the executive order issued today extends price gouging protections to July 1, 2025, for hotels, motels, and rental housing and includes prohibitions on evictions of tenants to relist the rental at a higher rate. The order retains exemptions for large homes in specified zip codes with high fair market values and which have not recently been on the rental market to help ensure they are available for rental during recovery efforts. The order also exempts newly constructed housing to increase housing supply by enabling pricing flexibility for these new buildings that face higher financing costs. (See previous emails for details.)

To read the executive order in its entirety, please see here.

California law generally prohibits charging a price that exceeds, by more than 10%, the price a seller charged for an item before a state or local declaration of emergency. For items a seller only began selling after an emergency declaration, the law generally prohibits charging a price that exceeds the seller's cost of the item by more than 50%. This law applies to those who sell food, emergency supplies, medical supplies, building materials, and gasoline. The law also applies to repair or reconstruction services, emergency cleanup services, transportation, freight and storage services, hotel accommodations, and rental housing. Exceptions to this prohibition exist if, for example, the price of labor, goods, or materials has increased for the business.

Violators of the price gouging statute are subject to criminal prosecution that can result in a one-year imprisonment in county jail and/or a fine of up to $10,000. Violators are also subject to civil enforcement actions including civil penalties of up to $2,500 per violation, injunctive relief, and mandatory restitution. The Attorney General and local prosecutors can enforce the statute.

Attorney General Bonta has been steadfast in his commitment to going after people who price gouge. In addition to sending over 700 warning letters to hotels and landlords, the California Department of Justice has several active investigations into price gouging. Additionally: (See my previous emails of these events.)

- On January 2024, Attorney General Bonta announced the filing of charges against a real estate agent for attempting to price gouge a couple who lost their home in the Los Angeles Eaton Fire.
- On January 28, 2024, Attorney General Bonta announced the filing of charges against a second real estate agent for attempting to price gouge a family who was evacuated due to the Los Angeles Eaton Fire.
- On February 2, 2024, Los Angeles City Attorney Hydee Feldstein announced bringing misdemeanor price gouging charges against a homeowner and real estate agent who allegedly engaged in price gouging in violation of the law, in collaboration with DOJ's Disaster Relief Task Force.
- On February 18, 2024, Attorney General Bonta announced the filing of charges against a Southern California real estate agent and a landlord for price gouging a victim who was evicted due to the Eaton Fire.

March 4, 2025 | Bulletin #25-10 - Updated Fire Map Guidelines for ReCoverCA Homebuyer Assistance Program

Effective immediately, we have updated the program guidelines for fire map verifications related to applicant and property eligibility for the ReCoverCA Homebuyer Assistance (DR-HBA) Program.

Please be aware that there are two separate maps for verifications:

1. One map is used to confirm the applicant's location during the qualifying disaster period.
2. The other map is used to determine the eligibility of a property being purchased.

Applicant Eligibility - Fire Map

To qualify for funding through the program, the applicant's primary residence at the time of the disaster must have been located within a local, state, or federal High or Very High Fire Hazard Severity Zone in California. This can be verified through this CalFire Fire Hazard Severity Zone Viewer (Applicant Eligibility).

Purchase Property Eligibility - Fire Map

For a property to be eligible for purchase, it must be located outside of High or Very High Fire Hazard Severity Zones in California. This can be verified through this CalFire Fire Hazard Severity Zone Viewer (Purchase Property).

Please note: This map is currently being updated, and the expected completion date for these updates is March 24, 2025.

Thank you for your attention to this important update. If you have any questions or need further clarification, please don't hesitate to reach out to GSFA via email at info@gsfahome.org or by phone at (855) 740-8422.

The ReCoverCA Homebuyer Assistance Program is provided by the California Department of Housing and Community Development, funded by a HUD Community Development Block Grant - Disaster Recovery grant and managed by Golden State Finance Authority (GSFA), a public entity and agency in California.

Complete program policies, eligibility requirements, interest rates, APRs, and loan applications are available through a network of ReCoverCA HBA Lenders, published on the GSFA website www.gsfahome.org.

Homeowners, renters, and workers who had losses from the wildfires now have until March 31 (originally until March 10, 2025) to apply for federal aid (FEMA and SBA). The deadline to apply for Disaster Unemployment Assistance has also been extended until March 31. DUA is for workers—such as self-employed people—who are not eligible for regular unemployment benefits and lost their jobs or had hours reduced because of the Los Angeles County wildfires. (Note: FEMA website has not been updated yet to reflect this change.)

FEMA assistance for individuals affected by the wildfire can cover rental assistance, temporary housing, home repairs, personal property losses and other disaster-related needs not covered by insurance. FEMA grants do not have to be repaid. FEMA assistance is nontaxable and will not affect eligibility for Social Security, Medicaid or other federal benefits.

The previous deadline for registration for disaster aid was March 10, but Governor Newsom and California's bipartisan congressional delegation requested an extension to allow more survivors to sign up for assistance.
